The Monthly Newsletter of Pilgrim Lutheran Church

3901 First Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN 55409 (612) 825-5375

History

After forty long years the Lord brought the children of Israel to the Promised Land. As the priests entered the waters of the Jordan River, they stopped flowing so that the entire nation could walk into their new home on dry ground. Joshua, the new leader of the people, instructed one man from each tribe of Israel to take a stone out of the river bed. Those twelve stones were then piled up on the riverbank as a memorial. Joshua said,

“In the future when your children ask you ‘What do these stones mean?’ tell them that the flow of the Jordan was cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones are to be a memorial to the people of Israel forever.” (Joshua 3:6-8)

Every nation and people group needs to teach history. One of the ways that we teach history is through the memorials that we build, as Joshua instructed the Israelites. We also celebrate holidays, like the Fourth of July in this country, as a way to teach and to keep memories alive.

The Fourth of July holiday is a great reminder to us that the teaching of history is not something that needs to happen only in classrooms. History does not belong only on bookshelves and libraries. We want it to be a part of who we are as a people who love freedom.

A holiday is a great way to pass along the value of history to our young people. How do we pass along the history of our salvation to the next generation? Let’s not let our children think that the story of Jesus is nothing more than words on a page. They need to know that in him we have peace and joy. For the Christian, every day is Independence Day!

*‘Posterity will serve him; future generations will be told about the Lord.
They will proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn—
For he has done it!’*

Psalm 22:30-31

CORRECTION

Many thanks to the historians who pointed out the mistake I made in last month's newsletter. General Grant wasn't the Confederate general who surrendered. I should have written General Lee, of course. Sorry for the mistake!

Pastor Pete Leyrer

Ask the Pastor

Treasurer's Report

Michael Anderson, Treasurer

	May 08	Year to Date
Income	61,114.33	672,417.99
Expenses	63,094.63	706,486.49
Income less	- 1,980.30	-34,050.50

On the first Sunday of June, I'll be answering some of the "ask the pastor" questions that I've received through Pilgrim's website. I hope to continue doing a few questions on the first Sunday of every month. I don't know why, but many questions that had been submitted through the site didn't get to me when they were first written. I apologize for this glitch, but now I have quite a backlog of interesting questions to address.

Keep those questions coming!

Celebrations & Congratulations

Blessed are those whose strength is in you, who have set their hearts on pilgrimage. Psalm 84:5

Did you know?

It's Better than the Dollar Store!

Many of you may purchase greeting cards at the Dollar Store at a bargain price of two for $1 or 50¢ each. Here is a better idea – and it will save you gas money to boot.

The Ladies Guild has a card rack in the lower level of the church, just outside of the fireside room. All types of cards are available: birthday, sympathy, get well, thinking of you, graduation, confirmation, blank, and Easter and Christmas in season—you name it, we've got it.

Pilgrim Rummage Sale

A BIG SUCCESS!!!

Thanks to
Zoe Herzig who worked tirelessly on this event.
Boy was she organized!

We cannot forget Jon, the family, and all the other helping hands.

There are also handcrafted cards in the rack for all occasions. These cards are also only 50¢ each, and most contain a Bible verse or Christian message! If you can't find a card you like, ask Evelyn Melin....she stocks the card rack. So how is this a better deal?

Well, you save on gas because you can do your card shopping when you worship on Sunday or Wednesday! A win/win situation. Happy shopping.

Women's Bible Study

If you have questions, please call Doris, 612-922-5058 or Betty, 612-823-4885.
