A Two-Faced month

Maybe it doesn't sound like a compliment, but this is the time of year to be a little "two faced." The name January, you see, comes from Janus, an ancient god of beginnings, of entrances into new ventures or stages of life. The Romans depicted him as a man with two faces, one facing forward and one backward so that he could see the future as well as the past. Beginnings are a time to be a little "two faced", to look back as well as forward. I'm not advocating that we worship Janus or any god but the Father, Son and Spirit, but let's look back and forward a bit:

- This past year we continued to gather as God's people and He continued to bless us through his word and sacraments. This has been an unbroken tradition at Pilgrim since 1923. Praise God for his goodness to us!
- While we made a shift in service format and schedule during 2007—"traditional" worship at 8:30 each Sunday and "contemporary" at 10:30 God's word and sacrament continue to be the center of our worship services.
- During 2007 we mourned the loss of some good people whom the Lord called home. While we grieve the loss, we also know that they now rest from their labors and that we will be reunited with them. More reasons to thank and praise God!
- This past year saw growth in school enrollment, as well as slight increases in church attendance and giving. More reasons to thank and praise God!

In this new year we hope, under God's blessings, to glorify his name with:

- Worship services that continue to focus our attention on God's word and sacrament.
- A new Sunday School program (set to launch March 9, 2008) that will involve parents as well as children.

- Continued growth in school enrollment, church attendance and giving.
- Stephen's Ministry, a training course and visitation ministry that will equip and empower our membership for ministry (see the November 2007 newsletter)
- A variety of course offerings in our Wednesday evening Bible studies, and increased attendance.

May God be with us as thank him for the blessings of the past and hope for the future!

"Lord you have been our dwelling place throughout all generations."
- Psalm 90:1

A Heartfelt Thanks

Those little red pocket calendars that have been available at Pilgrim for many years were also distributed with the Pilgrim Proclaimer in December. What a blessing to know that many people will read a new Bible verse each month as they carry this calendar in their pocket or purse. And, information about Pilgrim Church and School is all there too.

Thank you, Lorraine Schanzenbach for letting your heart for Evangelism reach out with this generous gift!

Women's Bible Study

Women and Diversity = Dynamic Bible Study

The Pilgrim Women's Bible Study met only once in December. But come January we will be back to the usual schedule: the second and fourth Saturday of each month starting at 9:00 a.m. in the fireside room.

Our December meeting was awesome as we talked about women of the Bible who impressed us in some way. The group kept coming back to Mary, the mother of Jesus, but many other women that we had studied through our sessions were discussed at length.

We are a diverse gathering of women (we've held two baby showers since our inception and some of us sport silver hair.) Soon we will be starting a new study book and this would be a perfect time for additional women to join our group – maybe you?

All women of Pilgrim are welcome as well as any guest you want to bring that would like to get to know Jesus Christ as their Savior. Please consider this an invitation to you and friends you bring.

If you have questions, please call Doris, 612-922-5058 or Betty, 612-823-4885.
